DATE DISTR. 4 January 1949

NO. OF PAGES 81

NO. OF ENCLS.

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Members of the Venezuelan Military Junta stated on 30 December 1948 that the Russian Embassy in Caracas was being closely watched. They added that the slightest interference by members of that Embassy in the internal affairs of Venezuela would result in the immediate severance of diplomatic relations between Venezuela and the USSR.

2. Members of the Junta anticipate no trouble from the Communist Party, which has remained quiet to date. They strongly dislike the Communist Party and will outlaw it if given provocation.
